Supreme Wrapping™ Film Revved Up – Supercharged performance upgrades

Well-loved by wrap installers around the globe, Avery Dennison Supreme Wrapping™ Film is renowned for its innovative design and superb performance. Not happy standing still, our material science experts are continually pushing boundaries.

After rigorous testing in the most punishing environments, Supreme Wrapping Film has been supercharged with extra heat and UV resistance, plus a new advanced construction which together drive it further than ever before, right to the front of the pack for outdoor durability.

We are so confident with our improved performance that we are extending the Avery Dennison Supreme Wrapping Film warranty on Satin and Gloss by up to 300%*!

*For detailed information, please refer to our warranty documentation.

Same Legendary Speed of Installation

Faster installation, higher-quality results – job done, move on.

When it comes to installation Supreme Wrapping Film is still stacked with features that are hard to beat: ultra-conformable, repositionable, slidable, fast and easy, bubble and hassle-free adhesive. Even the most experienced applicators are more productive, meaning increased output.

And when it comes time to change style, with our advanced Long-Term Removable adhesive, you can remove and change wraps with ease.
