Wrap Trainers

Justin Pate

Owner of
The Wrap Institute

Justin specializes in wrap training for all substrates—walls, floors, windows and vehicles. Justin began car wrapping in 1996 in New York City and, in 2007, moved to Amsterdam. Over his 28 year career, Justin has wrapped over 3000 vehicles. In 2014, Justin launched The Wrap Institute, an online streaming video education platform.

John
Duever

President of Vinyl Images

John has been in the adhesive backed advertising industry for over 20 years. Since 2002, he has been a partner at Vinyl Images and Design in St. Louis, Missouri. Vinyl Images and Design has a team of 20 people in their 27,000 square foot world headquarters. John became an Avery Dennison wrap instructor in 2017. He is the host of The WrapIQ Podcast and owns a business specializing in coaching and consulting in the wrap, PPF, and tint industries.

Charlie
Trujillo

CEO of Lettering Express

Charlie's career in vinyl started at an early age. His parents founded Lettering Express in 1988 and he spent much of his childhood helping out after school and on the weekends. He spent his teen years working for a few other local sign shops and spent his 20's working to become an expert of vinyl application while acquiring many industry certifications. He became a trainer for Avery Dennison North America in 2021.

Blake
Madsen

Owner of
Brand Command

Blake is an accomplished professional in the wrap and graphics industry, with over 15 years of experience in the field. Blake's passion for his craft led him to compete in numerous wrap competitions, where he consistently placed at the top of his class. Blake's expertise and dedication to his craft have earned him numerous accolades including 7 industry certifications including becoming Avery Dennison certified in 2016. A year later in 2017, Blake founded his company Brand Command, which specializes in commercial vehicle branding.

Paint Protection Film Trainer

Narayan
Andrews

Owner of
Spectrum Auto

Narayan started installing window tint for auto, residential, and commercial glass in the 1990s. He first started installing paint protection film (PPF) in 2003 and that same year he opened his own shop, Spectrum Auto, in Colorado Springs, Colorado where he currently still resides. By 2008, he was offering full vehicle wraps, fleet vehicles, murals and window graphics as well as PPF.
